CHAN'S
BAMBOO
LUAU

Chinese Restaurant and Bar

"Good Food at Cheaper Prices" has been Bamboo Lau's goal since its Grand Opening in the Fall of 1981

Location: 2257 Lenox Rd., N. E. at Cheshire Bridge Road and Lenox intersections. (Behind Happy Herman's).
Owner: Teddie Chan.

Food Critic, Connie Green, praising Bamboo Lau as one of Atlanta's finest Chinese Restaurants, found owner, Teddie Chan, formerly of Trader Vic's put experience to work by selecting choice and Chinese food at cheaper prices. Enhancing the menu are 21 different refreshing fruit and rum drinks from the islands. (The Pina Colada and Mai Tai are especially recommended.)

Harold V. Shumacher of the Journal-Constitution describes Bamboo Lau's chinese cooking as using as many as four to six ingredients in their main dishes. The sauces are thick and there's an emphasis on showmanship with flaming dishes and drinks.

Connie Green finds the "House Delight" dish to be true delight with it's mixture of shrimp, chunks of chicken and strips of tenderloin beef sautéed with assorted Chinese Vegetables. Come in and see for yourself. We deliver, too! We are the first Chinese restaurant to offer this service.
